The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XXIId Year.] THURSDAY, November 20, 1766. [N°. 1106.]

LEGHORN, Auguſt 19.

LETTERS from Algiers, of the 5th Inſtant, adviſe, that the Inhabitants were in the greateſt Conſternation from the Apprehenſion of another Revolution; on which Account ſeveral of the moſt wealthy People had retired into the Country. Their Apprehenſions were founded upon a formidable Conſpiracy againſt the Life of the Dey, which was to have been carried into Execution the 1ſt Inſtant, but was happily diſcovered 20 Hours before. Ten of the principal Conſpirators were taken, Six of whom were immediately Strangled, and the Dey has promiſed a Pardon to the remaining Four, upon Condition that they diſcover their Accomplices, which however they have not yet done. Theſe Advices add, that Ten Earthquakes have happened within the laſt Six Months at Algiers, Two of which were very violent.

Ferrara, Auguſt 20. On the 19th of laſt Month there arrived at Venice Five Merchant Ships from Alexandria and Cyprus, loaded to the Value of above a Million of Ducats, and among other Things, a conſiderable Quantity of Coffee; which however is ſo ſcarce in Arabia, that the Grand Signior has prohibited the Exportation of it out of his Eſtates. It is ſaid his Highneſs has ſeized all the Veſſels of whatever Nation they were, found in the Ports of his Dominions, and freighted them to tranſport Troops into Egypt, where there is a Revolt.

Conſtantinople, July 4. The Plague begins to appear here, and rages more in the Suburb of Pera than in any other Part of the City.

They write from Salonica, that the Baſhaw of Yaſſini had paſſed near that City, at the Head of 13,000 Men, on his March towards Varna, where he was to embark for Georgia: It is ſaid that ſome other ſmall Bodies of Albanians were marched on the ſame Deſtination.

Civita Vecchia, July 14. The Engliſh Conſuls reſiding in Foreign Countries, have received Orders from their Court to take away the Engliſh Paſſports which the Genoeſe Ships had obtained at Port-Mahon and Gibraltar; and the Governors of thoſe Places are forbid to furniſh any for the Future to neutral Powers.

Genoa, July 9. They are building Ships of War in great Haſte at Toulon, where 1500 Men are likewiſe employed on the Fortifications.

LONDON, Auguſt 4.

Mrs. Draper, Midwife to her Majeſty, will remove in a few Days to Richmond, to remain in Waiting againſt the Queen's lying in.

It is ſaid that Lord Camden will certainly be created an Earl before the Meeting of the Parliament.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to promote Robert Melvill, Eſq; to the Rank of Major-General in the Weſt-Indies only.

Aug. 15. It is ſaid that an authentic Account was brought on Thurſday Night from Paris of the French Miniſtry being now actually deliberating on an Edict permiſſive of the full Enjoyment of Religious Liberty, as in England; with a View that the Hugonots may no longer be driven to the painful Alternative of either deſerting their own Country, or of reſiding within it in a conſtant State of Hypocriſy.

Auguſt 16. The ſumptuary Edict lately publiſhed at Stockholm, conſiſts of Eighteen Articles, in which the following, among other unneceſſary Merchandizes, are prohibited; 1. Coffee, Chocolate, Arrack, Punch, Strong Waters, and moſt Sorts of Wines. 2. Confectionary. 3. The Uſe of Tobacco, except the Perſon be One and Twenty Years of Age. 4. The Ladies to wear no Trimmings, except it be the ſame Sort with the Reſt of the Gown. 5. All Lace above an Inch broad is prohibited. 6. The inferior Women to wear no Silk, except for Caps. 7. The Men to wear no Velvet or Silk Stuff. 8. Silk or Velvet Furniture is alſo forbid. 9. Likewiſe Gilding on the Fixtures of Houſes. 10. No Perſon under Thirty, to keep any Horſe, or Carriage in Towns. 11. No Perſon to keep running Footmen, 12. Or employ Hair-Dreſſers, 13. Or foreign Tutors for Children. 14. Oak Coffins not to be made. 15. Plumes of Feathers for Hats forbid. 16. Likewiſe foreign China, except for Tea. 17. Prohibited Goods which were ordered before the Edict, to be exported within a Year. 18. The Edict to commence January 1, 1767.

Aug. 21. Some Letters from Hanover inform, that an Army of 25,000 Men was to be kept up in that Electorate.

It is talked that Proviſion will be made next Seſſions, for augmenting the Pay of Subaltern Officers of Marching Regiments, and that the ſame will be extended to Gentlemen of the Army, and Mariners on Half Pay.

Aug. 25. The Marriage of the Prince of Orange with the Princeſs Louiſa Anne, is ſaid to be fixed for the 25th of October, (his Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Crown) at the Dutch Chapel at St. James's.

It is ſtrongly affirmed, that next Seſſion of Parliament there is to be a General Reviſal of our Laws, and that the Forms of Proceeding in Caſes of Debt, will in particular undergo ſeveral ſalutary Alterations.

Sept. 9. The many Accounts of the frequent Councils lately held on the Affairs of the Dutch, if not intended merely to amuſe, are at leaſt groſs Miſrepreſentations of the Matter. The Truth, as we are informed, is as follows: A mighty Monarch, who thinks himſelf injured by the Conduct obſerved towards him at the Concluſion of the late War, finding that a Negotiation for a Marriage was on the Carpet, ordered his Ambaſſador to demand the Prince in Queſtion for a Niece of his own, intimating, at the ſame Time, that, in caſe of Refuſal, he had a large Army ready to obey his Orders. So peremptory a Meſſage, from one ever accuſtomed to carry his Threats into Execution, could not but ſtrike Terror, eſpecially as Matters had already proceeded to a conſiderable length with another Party; Couriers on Couriers were immediately diſpatched. On one Side they are threatened with a Revival of old Claims, in Caſe of Non-Compliance; on the other, with Inſtant Invaſion. How to act in ſuch a Criſis the poor diſtreſſed Republicans are at a Loſs to tell. The Monarch it is known will not recede, and the Oppoſition Party pretend great Firmneſs. Probably a double Portion may be required; one to complete the intended Marriage, the other (a much heavier one) to pacify the Wrath of the incenſed Monarch.

We hear from Florence, Auguſt 9, That the Duke Strozzi, Maſter of the Great Ducheſs's Houſhold, conſidering the unneceſſary Expence of Sweet-meats at the Celebration of Weddings, has thought proper, on Occaſion of the Marriage of his eldeſt Daughter, to diſpoſe of the Money which would have been ſpent on theſe Articles, among thoſe who were in Want of it. He accordingly gave his Pariſh Notice, that 1260 Livres of our Money ſhould be diſtributed in equal Portions, among Twelve Poor Girls, of good Character; and that Eight Beds ſhould likewiſe be given for the Uſe of ſuch poor Families as ſhould be named by the Curate: That on the Wedding-day he intended to divide Bread and other Proviſions among all the neceſſitous Perſons of the Place; to releaſe a certain Number of Priſoners confined for Debt, and to give to each ſomething to begin the World afreſh; to remit his Tenants Half their uſual Service; and to give to the Poor Families, from whom no Service is expected, a Gratification of 35 Livres.

Baſſeterre (in St. Chriſtophers) October 15.

Before the Honourable ROBERT HENVILL, Eſq; Judge Surrogate of the Court of Vice Admiralty for the ſaid Iſland,

The Depoſition of WILLIAM HARRIS, Mariner.

THIS Deponent being duly Sworn on the Holy Evangels of Almighty GOD, declareth and ſaith, That ſome Time in the Month of Auguſt laſt, he ſailed in the Sloop called Polly, whereof one —— Dorria was Maſter, bound from New-York to the Leeward Iſlands, and about Three Weeks afterwards, being then in the Latitude Twenty-five, to the beſt of this Deponent's knowledge, and there being at that Time on board the ſaid Sloop, the ſaid Maſter, his Mate, named —— Denelt, Two Paſſengers, whoſe Names were unknown to the Deponent, a Portugueſe, who ſaid his Name was Joſeph Andrews, a Dutchman, named Nicholas Johnſon, both Mariners on board the ſaid Sloop, a Cabbin Boy named —— Cobbs, and a Boy whoſe Name this Deponent cannot recollect; in the Night, about 12 o'Clock, the Captain's Watch being out, the ſecond Watch was called, being the Mate's, this Deponent's, and one of the Boy's; and when this Deponent came on the Deck, together with the Mate and Boy, the Mainſail being then Half-maſt high, the Mate ordered the Mainſail to be hoiſted, and went forward to aſſiſt, and, as the Mainſail was hoiſting, he the ſaid Joſeph Andrews ſaid to this Deponent, Will, is it not your Turn to Relieve the Perſon at the Helm? And this Deponent anſwered it was; but he would firſt aſſiſt in hoiſting the Mainſail; which being done, and as this Deponent was going aft, he heard the Mate tell the ſaid Joſeph Andrews to aſſiſt in hauling down the Flying-Jib, after which he would not be diſturbed, it being his Watch below.

And this Deponent ſaith, he went immediately after that, and relieved the Man at the Helm, who was Nicholas Johnſon; and as this Deponent was at the Helm, one of the Paſſengers came on the Deck, and ſtood looking with his Face forward, when the ſaid Joſeph Andrews came running aft, on the Lee Side, and came up between the Companion and the Tiller Head, and ſtruck down the ſaid Paſſenger with a large Ax, uſed for the cutting of Wood, which this Deponent obſerving, cried out, For GOD Almighty's Sake, Andrews, what are you about? Upon which the ſaid Joſeph Andrews then made a Stroke at this Deponent, and miſſed him, and he this Deponent immediately ran aft, and the ſaid Joſeph Andrews attempted to follow him; but on hearing the Paſſenger groan whom he had knocked down, he turned to him, killed him, and, as this Deponent believes, then threw him overboard, during which Time this Deponent went out upon the Flying Jib Boom End, in order to ſecrete himſelf from the ſaid Joſeph Andrews: And this Deponent further ſaith, That, after ſtaying ſome Time on the Flying-Jib Boom End, the ſaid Joſeph Andrews came forward, and called to this Deponent, and aſked him, if he would agree to his and the Dutchman's Propoſals, meaning the ſaid Nicholas Johnſon; telling this Deponent, there were no others then on board, dead or alive, excepting the ſaid Joſeph Andrews, Nicholas Johnſon, and this Deponent, as he never ſuſpected what had happened, and what they afterwards related to him.

And this Deponent ſaith, He then aſked them what the Propoſals were? Upon which they replied, that the Veſſel was their own, and if he would conſent to their Propoſals, he ſhould come in from the Flying-Jib Boom End in Safety, and have One Third of what was in the Veſſel.

And this Deponent ſaith, That through Fear, and in Hopes of preſerving his Life, he conſented; and, after coming from the Flying-Jib Boom, they made him follow them into the Cabbin, where they broke open ſeveral of the Lockers to look for Liquor, and alſo broke open the Captain's Cheſt, and took from thence Two Bottles of Wine, and, after Swearing this Deponent never to diſcover, they then told him, That before the Second Watch, in which this Deponent was, they being in the Firſt Watch with the Captain, they had thrown overboard (alive) one of the Paſſengers, and knocked down the Captain, and threw him overboard (dead) and had alſo thrown over the Cabbin-Boy (alive).

And this Deponent further ſaith, That he verily believes, the Mate and the other Boy, who were in the Watch, and came on the Deck with this Deponent, were killed before the ſaid Joſeph Andrews ran aft, and knocked down the Paſſenger as aforeſaid; and his Reaſon for ſuch Belief is, That if they had not been killed before, they would have come aft to the Aſſiſtance of this Deponent, ponent, as this Deponent made a Noiſe, thinking that the Captain was aſleep in his Cabbin, and that he would awake him, and alſo to bring the Mate, Boy, and Dutchman aft, not then ſuſpecting that the Dutchman was concerned with the Portugueſe.

And this Deponent further ſaith, That about Three or Four Days afterwards, the ſaid Joſeph Andrews, Nicholas Johnſon, and this Deponent, quitted the ſaid Sloop, and took to the Boat, in order to go in her to St. Euſtatius, and they ſteered for the Iſland of Nevis, and ſo ran under the Iſland of St. Chriſtopher's; and this Deponent obſerving the ſaid Joſeph Andrews and Nicholas Johnſon to be faſt aſleep, ſteered the Boat near Brimſtone-hill, and being nigh the Shore, and imagining his Life to be in Danger, as he had overheard the ſaid Joſeph Andrews and the ſaid Nicholas Johnſon, while they were in the Sloop, ſay, That they would knock him on the Head, and heave the Log with him; and, when in the Boat, he ſaw the ſaid Joſeph Andrews give the ſeveral Signs to the ſaid Nicholas Johnſon, to kill this Deponent; he, this Deponent, ſtripped off his Shoes, and took both the Oars that were in the Boat, that is, the Oar he ſteered the Boat with, and an Oar that lay in the Boat, and caſt himſelf with them into the Sea, and ſwam to the Shore under Brimſtone-hill aforeſaid: And this Deponent ſaith, he does not know what became of the ſaid Joſeph Andrews and Nicholas Johnſon, after he quitted the Boat as aforeſaid, but believes they made ſome Contrivance to get into St. Euſtatius.

And this Deponent further ſaith, he cannot conceive what Inducement they could have had to commit the ſaid ſeveral Murders, unleſs it was with a View of getting what Money or valuable Effects, if any, that were on Board, belonging to the Captain and Paſſengers.

And, laſtly, This Deponent ſaith, That the ſaid Joſeph Andrews is about Five Feet Six Inches high, of a ſwarthy Complexion, with very black curled Hair, well made, has a Wife at New-York, and lived in a Street in the City of New-York, called the Golden-Hill, ſpeaks good Engliſh, and has often attempted to paſs as a Welchman: And the ſaid Nicholas Johnſon is ſomewhat taller than the ſaid Joſeph Andrews, of a fair Complexion, light coloured Hair, has a full Face, but not ſo well made as the ſaid Joſeph Andrews.

WILLIAM HARRIS.

Sworn this 10th Day of October, 1766, before me, R. HENVILL.

To Mr. GREEN, PRINTER.

SIR,

THE Offence you have given, by an Article in one of your late GAZETTES, to many of your Friends and conſtant Readers, it is to be hop'd, will be in ſome Meaſure, if not entirely, atton'd for, by your publiſhing the underwritten Advertiſement, which appear'd publickly in Bladenſburg, and in Marlborough, agreeable to the Date as follows:

"Upper Marlborough, 27th October 1766.

"To the Propagators and Promoters of a falſe and injurious Report, viz. that the Subſcriber has been guilty of Murder, or at leaſt the Cauſe of a Perſon's Death.

"GENTLEMEN, &c.

"AS among all the Enjoyments we are liable to be depriv'd of in this Life, there is generally nothing more dear and valuable to Mankind, than their Reputation, or a good Name——as the Eſteem of Neighbours and Acquaintances, to the wiſe and thinking Part of the World, always has been, and always will be, the Source of a peculiar Pleaſure—— as 'tis one of the greateſt of all temporal Encouragements to every virtuous and worthy Action——and as it is a Mark of an abandon'd Spirit to have no Regard to it, you cannot think it ſtrange that one in my Station, ſhould be deſirous, as ſoon, and as publickly, as the Occaſion may require, to vindicate his Character againſt ſo foul and injurious an Aſperſion.

"This, therefore, is to give Notice to you Gentlemen, &c. and to all whom it may concern, that I intend to be at Bladenſburg on Thurſday next, being the Day appointed for a publick Race, and that I ſhall attend at Mr. Chittam's, to ſatisfy every malicious Enemy, if I have any ſuch, and every doubting Friend, if it is poſſible that any who knows me can believe me capable of ſo deteſtable a Crime. I ſay to ſatisfy all ſuch that The Report is FALSE.

"As to you, Gentlemen, to whom my Character may be a Matter of Indifference, or who have not in this Caſe, no more than in a preceeding one, intended me Harm, being actuated ſolely by the Humour of Prating, repeating what you hear, tho' it may be but from Negroes, permit me to requeſt of you, by way of Amends, this particular Favour, viz. that you inform all your Acquaintances, and all you meet with, not only that I have Adverti'd the above, but that the Place of my Reſidence is Mrs. Orme's, near Upper-Marlborough, where I am ready to be call'd upon, and to anſwer any Accuſation that can be brought againſt me. Further,

"If any one that knows me, will ſay I have injur'd him either in Word or Action, or that I am unworthy the Office I bear, as a Teacher of Religion, let him acquaint me with it by Letter; let him, not only for his own Benefit, but as a Friend to Society, by detecting Hypocriſy, appoint ſome Public Place, at ſome Public Time, where and when, if I don't appear, and if I don't give an Anſwer that will be ſatisfactory to every impartial and diſcerning Byſtander, let me be treated as a Villain, let me feel all that Puniſhment which the Laws of GOD, and of Men, and the Benefit of Society, require. Till then, I flatter myſelf, all, who are in any Degree acquainted with me, will at leaſt believe me innocent of what I have been accus'd, and that there is Humanity, that there is a Principle of Benevolence, that there is to all Mankind, without one ſingle Exception, a ſincere Well wiſher to their Peace and Happineſs both here and for ever, in

"J. THRELKELD."

That the Subſcriber appear'd at Bladenſburg agreeable to the Advertiſement above——that he mention'd the Report to as many as he could conveniently ſpeak to——that no Man accus'd him of any Thing in regard to it, unleſs of giving himſelf that unneceſſary Trouble in vindicating his Character——are Facts, which may, if Occaſion require, be eaſily prov'd. And now Mr. Green, if the Trouble to you is not too much, as my Name muſt be known perhaps as far as yours, that an Idea of my Principles, and the Diſpoſition of my Heart may accompany it, tell it to the World.——If the ridiculous Prejudice of Education——if the Enemies to religious or civil Liberty ——if Malevolence——(Honeſty I am not afraid of, becauſe I worſhip it wherever I meet with it, eſteeming it the ſublimeſt Sentence that ever was penn'd by an uninſpired Writer, "An honeſt Man's the nobleſt Work of GOD;" but if the aſore-mentioned Peſts of Society) have any Thing to ſay to my Diſadvantage, I challenge 'em to ſay it now, i. e. the firſt Opportunity, to ſay it to my Face in Publick Company. Their pitiful Backbiting would not anſwer their Purpoſe, for notwithſtanding that, EVERY HONEST AND BENEVOLENT MAN, OF EVERY SECT AND PARTY, AS FAR AS THE SUBSCRIBER IS KNOWN, WILL CONTINUE TO ESTEEM J. T.

---
